SWASTHYA

Swasthya, located off the Coimbatore-Pollachi highway, is a gated community township designed exclusively for the retired. On completion, the upscale project is slated to comprise over 100 homes sprawled on an area of 9 acres. The villas come in one, two and three bedroom options, with sizes ranging from 700 to 1170 sq.ft. What's more, studio units of 300 sq.ft have also been planned for those looking for compact living spaces.

Swasthya has been conceived to be a class apart from its contemporaries, both in design as well as in spirit. The residences have been designed by a prominent architect to keep in line with international standards and specifications. The facilities have been conceptualized keeping in mind the needs and necessities of the elderly. The landscape is testimony to the emphasis placed on the outdoors which includes tennis courts and walking trails. Immediate medical attention, exclusive dining area and concierge services are just a few among the many amenities that are available.

Moreover, the opportunity to mingle with other individuals who are on the same wavelength, both physically and mentally, is an added plus at Swasthya. To be constructed in phases, Swasthya's booking for Phase I is currently in progress.

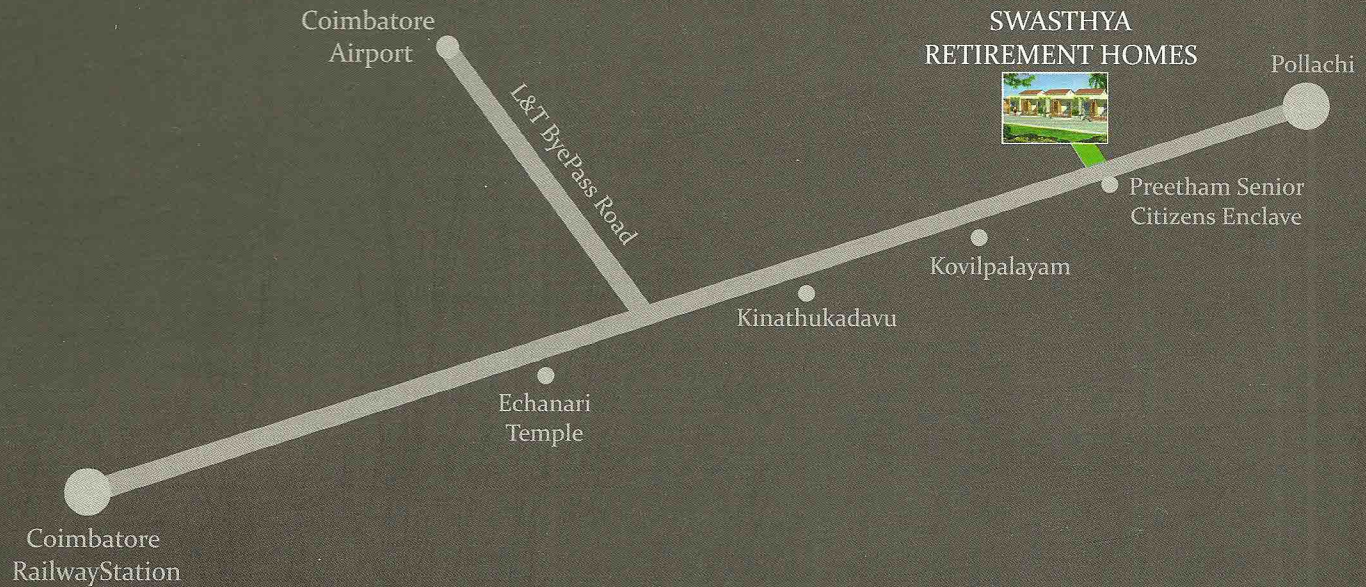

Come, explore the opportunity to experience the best years of your life...yet!

LOCATION

Swasthya is situated 30 kms from Coimbatore and is merely 8 away from the placid little town of Pollachi. Just off the highway, it is easily accessible by a well-connected transportation network. Pollachi's lush greenery and pleasant weather makes it an ideal spot to lead a relaxed, retired life. As a rapidly developing town, it has also remarkably grown to accommodate conveniences of every kind - from quality medical services to shopping centres and recreational facilities.
