Locality Reviews

Digha, Patna

Digha is an important landmark in Patna. It is known for producing famous Dudhia Langra Aam (Mango). It is famous for its Industrial Training Institute too. It is famous for having BATA shoe factory too. It is situated on the bank of holy river Ganga in the western part of Patna. Few kilometers away from Digha is Danapur Cantt. The under-construction new Road-cum-Rail bridge which is connecting North and South Bihar is passing through Digha. This has given impetus to Residential and Commercial activities in Digha. Prices of land has started shooting up. A new Railway Station has come up in Patliputra which is close to Digha. Schools, Colleges, Hospitals, Shopping Malls, Commercial Complexes, Markets are located around Digha. From the heart of Patna i.e. Gandhi Maidan, it is a straight drive of 15 mins. to reach Digha. The Patna-Digha road has been widened to 150 feet to ensure congestion free traffic movement. Eastern part of the Patna which has become now densely populated, people are shifting towards Digha for their residential purposes. In recent times, many multi-storey apartments have come up in the area. Land available in the area offers very profitable investment opportunity.

Pros:

- Not densely populated.
- 150 ft. wide main road.
- Less Air & Noise pollution.
