Vrindavan is a religious destination for the devotees across the world, situated on the banks of Yamuna. It have many old and modern temples, attracts lakhs of devotees every month. The latest development in Vrindavan is Chandrodaya Mandir. Vrindavan Mandir is well spread over many acres of land this temple is poised to become the tallest, grandest and largest religious structure in India.

Pros:

- Good Location

Posted: Nov 30, 2015 by Jagdish Krishna

Vrindavan is strategically located on main NH-2 at Vrindavan. Easy connectivity to road and railway. Surrounded by Medical & engineering institutes. Upcoming International Airport between Mathura & Agra. Vrindavan Highway greens is a 49 acres Govt. Approved. The facilities include Commercial Complex, Landscape Garden, Health Club, Swimming Full, Meditation Court, Security, Fire Alarm, Gymnasium etc and the location of this projects makes this place a great locality, as it nears numerous major locations as well as basic amenities like Hospitals, schools, University , meditation center, parks etc.

Pros:

- All basic & modern amenities around you.

Cons:

- Over Crowded

Vrindavan is the holy city and Lord Krishna"s childhood passed here. He played with Radha and other friends here. Mirabai and Chaitanya Prabhoo remained here. Prabhupad Swami did sadhana here and many other bhaktas like Swami Haridas ji and others many did sadhna here and they could see direct Lord Krishna and had conversation with him.

Pros:

- A site seeing place

Posted: Nov 1, 2014 by Om Sharma

Vrindavan is a perfect Kaleidoscope of art and design, crafted in complete harmony with nature. A masterpiece of living spaces.

Pros:

- Located on NH-2, on road site
- GLA university is only 2 km away
- chattikara marg is only 2 km away
