Locality Reviews

Ramamurthi Nagar, Bangalore

Ramamurthi Nagar, once a farmland has now been developed into this beautiful budding locality in the north-eastern part of Bengaluru. It comes under the KR Puram Vidhana Sabha constituency and consists of 7 BBMP wards.

One of the most preferred localities in north-east Bengaluru, Ramamurthi Nagar may fit your perception of an ideal locality.

Ramamurthi Nagar was basically farmland earlier. Farmers made layouts and sold it to interested buyers in the mid 90s. When BDA developed the OMBR, HMBR, Kasthuri Nagar and NGEF Layouts, it had an effect on Ramamurthi Nagar as well. People who wanted to stay in a quiet, green neighbourhood chose this locality.

Strategically, Ramamurthi Nagar is located close to Outer Ring Road and Old Madras Road. It hosts a blend of multi-storey apartments, independent houses and builder floors. Well established localities like Kalyan Nagar, Horamavu, KR Puram, Kasturi Nagar and Banaswadi are located close to Ramamurthi Nagar.

Infrastructure of Ramamurthi Nagar

Ramamurthi Nagar has good connectivity to the rest of the city, it has excellent transport links to Kempegowda Bus Station, Manyata Tech Park, Whitefield and Central Bengaluru.

Tambu Chetty Palya Main Road and Ramamurthi Nagar Main Road are the two main lifelines of the area from where most of the connectivity happens. BMTc buses run in good numbers providing affordable transportation services.

One can catch buses from TC Palya Road, Ramamurthi Nagar Police Station, Channasandra underpass and Kalkere road, to reach Manyata Tech Park, Kempegowda Bus Station, Shivajinagar, KR Market, Domlur, Electronic City, ITPL and Kempegowda International Airport. Also, there is a good fleet of metro feeder buses that connects passengers to metro stations of the purple line.

Pros:

- The commercial growth has risen due to the excellent connectivity
- Surrounded by parks and lakes, Ramamurthi Nagar is one of the greener wards in the city
- Home to many well-known temples and churches

Cons:

- Road condition worsened after being dug up for Cauvery water connection and then for sewage pipe ins
