M and M Bangalore has been founded by two brothers who have a strong background in agriculture, plantation crops, philanthropy and social ventures. Hailing from a family of Coffee Planters, the founders started diversifying into other agri-produce such as maize and ginger in the early 90s. A trading firm was set up in 1993 to trade these products, based out of Bangalore. The company grew rapidly and had Marketing operations in other cities such as Ahmedabad and Hyderabad. Once the agri-business became streamlined, the Founders started devoting time to social causes. In 1999, Social Service Organisation called DISC or Developmental Initiatives for Social Causes was established.
