Chennai is primarily an end-User driven real estate market. The factors that affect the decision of a buyer are connectivity, proximity to it/ites companies, the civic infrastructure and presence of amenities in a project.

The new developments in the city continue to attract buyers as they can witness a potential in the market. The residential real estate of the market expects to witness an upward graph due to a number of reasons.

Pros:

- Upward trend is expected

Cons:

- Nothing
