Description

Parkwood Group has been committed to developing grade 'A' commercial and residential projects. In their three decades of presence, they have successfully completed a myriad of projects, both commercial and residential, in prime areas of Delhi and North India. Parkwood Group has been founded by the promoters of Bank of Punjab. The company is backed by the experience of managing one of the leading financial institutions of India. The chairman of the Group, Mr. Harpreet Singh is a graduate from Birla Institutes of Technology and Science (BITS, Pilani). His vast experience in varied construction projects is an asset to the group. Parkwood combines form and functions with their creative vision to design properties that maximize business value for the user. Their township fosters a sense of community and enhances the physical experience and environment.

Parkwood Westend is an affordable, high quality, urban township concept. Located in sector 92, amongst the new residential sectors of Gurgaon, Westend is spread over 14 acres of nascent estate. The immediate proximity to major freeways offers superior access for the flat owners and provides a strategic advantage to them.

On offer are 2,3 and 4 BHK dwellings, in various combinations, within an open and a spacious setting. Landscaping is a predominant part of complex with maximum apartments getting a direct view of the central landscape and surrounding areas.
