Locality Reviews

Bandra Kurla Complex, Mumbai

BKC, the city's premiere business district, is developing in stature exponentially, rising to the mantle of the city's fastest growing residential and commercial hub. The finest names across corporates bear this address on their business cards, allowing BKC to claim the distinction as one of the most envied places to live and work. Its phenomenal, unrivaled growth story as Mumbai's first international level CBD (Central Business District), has drawn the most prestigious names to it. The most envied marquee brands have their offices here, from Bank of America to tech giants like Facebook and Google. Naturally, this burgeoning business district needs residential accommodation that would be befitting of the corporate heavyweights that inhabit it. Stalwarts of Industry understand the advantages of letting nothing come between them and their vision.

BKC is presently developing at a pace at which areas like Cuffe Parade and Nariman Point developed around 4 decades ago. Bandra (E) will soon be viewed as the most prominent residential location in the city. Efficiently regulated traffic, world-class security and finest quality infrastructure will further add up to the quality of life one aspires to live. In reality, Bandra (E) is already dubbed as a perfect replacement for popular property hub Cuffe Parade. Consisting of world class amenities, highly secured buildings, luxury hotels, schools, hospitals, malls and restaurants, BKC has a lot to offer. Moreover, with top banks, financial institutions, corporate offices and diplomatic consulates the area will completely transform.

Pros:

- Commercial Business District
- Upcoming MGM Mall

Cons:

- most of the areas are occupied by commercial buildings
