Vrinda Vatika News

Expert Reviews on Vrinda Vatika

As we know that Vrindavan is a Divine city of India, millions of people come to Vrindavan for peace every year.

It has become the favorite place for NRIs as well as Indians. NRIs use it as their holy home at holy place, in good environment during their short visit to India, when the climate abroad is too cold.

It is also good for people who visit sacred Vrindavan once, twice or more in a month/year to seek the blessings of almighty at the holy shrine and temples. Either they return in the evening or stay their for a day or two. Vrinda Vatika would give them a permanent abode in the holy city.

Can also be used by companies for their guest house for their employees in holy city, as the city attracts 5 lakh pilgrims every year. To have a guest house at holy city is a matter of pride and status. For the people who want to spend some moments of precious life at holy place where they can breath, relax, mediate, play and enjoy the nature- away from the congestion and tension of daily routine life at work place, metropolitan or some other city- at weekend or some other time.

Individuals can generate money from it by leasing it on rent to persons of groups visiting holy shrine.

Some come to India for couple of days, visit their relatives and go back. Some don't have their relatives in India as entire clan have shifted abroad and they look the place where they can go and live peacefully for couple of days to recall their memories. It will also give them one major attraction and concern with India even if they don't have any relative in India.

Pros:

- Get full peace of mind.
- Vrindavan is the divine city of India.
- Tourist destination.

Cons:

- 6 months delay in possession.
