Sector-62 is not just the largest sector in Noida, it also acts as a showpiece to many an industry, being the hub of the IT and ITeS sectors and related service industries. It is also known for being the hub for many educational institutions - right from play schools, to high schools to engineering and management institutions. It even has a Noida centre of IIM Lucknow. Sector-62 is very well connected with all other parts of Noida and its City Centre. It is well connected to Delhi both via the DND as well as NH24, and it is also quite close to Indirapuram.
