Description

Zaheerabad town is good for residence as all the necessities are easily available. There are few supermarkets available here like more and reliance smart and many worship places like temples, churches and mosques are also there. There are street lights in every street. Facilities like every time water supply; good power supply with less power cut; hospitals; good schools; easy transportation facilities like buses, railways and autos are available here. NH 65 highway is connected to this town which makes easy journey to other towns and cities. Vast agriculture land is around this town. When it comes to people here, they are very friendly and majority people are doing business and very less employment is available as it is a town.
