Chakrata Road itself covers a large area because it starts right from the heart of city i.e clock tower and goes upto chakrata which is almost 70 km away so we should divide it in city area and rural area city area can be considered upto premnagar belt there after selaqui industrial area belt and then agricultural belt the whole chakrata road is quite happening and full of greeny

Pros:

- well connected and very wide road
- connects uttrakhand to nearby states
- lots of important institutes like ima and other engineering colleges are situated on this road

Cons:

- at some points there are traffic congestion
- prices are higher in city area
