Ambarnath has been a slow starter compared to its neighbour Badlapur but has been seeing a lot more development in recent months. Many good residential projects have come up in Ambarnath by prominent builders like Panvelkars and Mohan group. Also the rates of property are very reasonable and come with all your usual amenities that everyone seeks now-a-days. A good place to invest in your second home or your first home for that matter.

Pros:

- Ambarnath being a starting station for local trains ensures a lot many local trains are available.
- Good residential and commercial projects.
- Development wise Ambarnath is going at a good pace.

Cons:

- Roads are in a bad condition which after repairing could be better.
