Locality Reviews

Karve Nagar, Pune

On 14th June in the year 1896, in the village 'Hingne' near Pune city, Maharshi Karve started a "Home for Widows", along with a school for widows, so that they become educated and self-reliant. The Institution was named as "Hingne Stree Shikshan Samstha". Later, the institution was renamed as "Maharshi Karve Stree Shikshan Samstha". The name Karve nagar is known from this historic development.

You will find renowned educational institutes like Cummins Girls College, MIT College. Well known schools such as Sevasadan English Medium School, Karnatak High school, Abhinav Vidyalaya, and many more. Developed as residential area with mixed community. Karvenagar area flourished with spacious schemes developed by all major builders in Pune. Known bungalow societies such as Navsahyadri Society, Sahawas Society, and Natraj Society are one of the most demanded and premium class societies. People will find accommodation / dream houses from 4000 rs sq ft to 15000 rs sq ft.

Karvenagar is a leading area in Pune with large number of public and private gardens, multiplex theaters, fitness centers , medical practitioners, hospitals, hostels, schools, banks etc. You name it and you will have it in Karvenagar.

Pros:

- Well maintained roads.
- No power fluctuations.
- Peace loving crowd.

Cons:

- Lots of pet lovers, take their dogs every morning on beautiful roads for dogs' nature calls.
- Property rates increasing by 15% P.A., and going beyond limits of middle class families.
