Description

Alanoville will be home to 75 families. Named after a Sapodilla tree that is indigenous to this region, the community is spread across 5 acres comprising 4 bhk villas in Nadagowdagollahalli, Hennur Road, Kannuru. A patio that overlooks the boulevards, a private garden or a personal wade pool. The idea was to specifically curate the design to visually extend the private living spaces of each row villa out into these private outdoor spaces and beyond into strategically placed common gardens. This way we have been able to make the 2957 sqft and 3450 sqft row villas feel much airier. Spaces visually cascade into one another. At some points your field of view from within your villa is uninterrupted for up to 80 feet and more.
