Bannerghatta road is a long stretch from Bengaluru Dairy circle to Bannerghatta village circle. It is about 15 kilometer. Even Anekal to Bannerghatta stretch road is also called Bannerghatta road. The price in BTM layout is 10000 Rs minimum 4500 Rs in Gottigere. Real estate happens majorly from BTM to Gottigere. Big dimension plots are dealt at corporate level without much advertisement in internet or newspaper. 30x40 and 60x40 sites are dealt by local agents. Middle class people prefer 1200sft sites only. Because it suits their budget, that dimension is in demand always. Many people ask sites for 3000 and 3500 Rs per sft which is their wish but 4000-4500 is the price in and around gottigere. customers who want to build house immediately dont want buy site in anjanapura BDA layout. Major problem of BDA layout in anjanapura is water. Unless Kaveri water is supplied by government population cannot survive here. But rich people can put borewell or take tanker water.

Pros:

- convention to make house in south bengaluru
- easy access to electronic city and white field
- all major real estate companies have their project in BG Road

Cons:

- Traffic consumes time of 1 hour to 3 hours in moving 15 kilometer
- This area is little away from Kempegowda International Airport Road
- all india people thronging BG road, shortage of water supply beyond arakere in bg road
