Malleshwaram is one of the oldest city of Bangalore, almost more than a 100 year old locality. This locality has produced many well know personalities, I am just mentioning a few of them The Nobel laureate Dr. C.V. Raman, famous scientist Krishnaswamy Kasturirangan, film stars Saroja Devi and Jaggesh, badminton world champion Prakash Padukone, his daughter a very famous Bollywood actresses Dipika Padukone, & also did Doraiswamy Iyengar. The locality has very organized roads with proper North - South & East- west cross roads. Two of the major main roads are Sampige Road and Margosa Road. Sampige road begins at Rajiv Gandhi Chowk and runs all the way to 18th cross. This entire stretch is one of the busiest market area with different varieties of commercial shops. It caters to traffic traveling from Majestic/Kempegowda Bus Station towards Yeshwantpur & also Rajajinagar. Margosa Road caters to the vehicle movements in the reverse direction, that is, from Yeshwanthpur to Majestic. On the cross roads, 8th cross road is the most popular where you will find everything from vegetable vendors to fruits, clothes, jewelry, electronic items. During festivals this road is closed as it is completely jam packed. It is very delightful to see the streets decorated with flowers, music, color lights. On the west of Malleshwaram you will find many aristocratic, upper middle class & middle class families. On the eastern side, you will find the middle & lower middle class population. It has a balanced class of people. The most famous Sankey tank is located at 18th cross Malleshwaram & goes up to Sadashivnagar. This tank has been revived & beautifully maintained by BBMP, they have made wonderful walk way for all kinds of people with beautiful garden & a wonderful atmosphere.

Pros:

- Very good & peaceful residential houses
- All types of basic amenities are available
- Great opportunity for Business & commercial purpose

Cons:

- Little expensive
