Locality Reviews

Coonoor, Nilgiris

Coonoor is a beautiful resort, hill station in South India, 65 km from Coimbatore, airport city. 18km from Ootacamund, the Queen of hill stations in India. Beautiful views, wildlife, forests, tea estates. A return to nature, clean air, water, no pollution. Feel energised, go for long walks, breathe fresh clean air. Friendly, honest local people, conversant in Hindi, English and Tamil. A leftover British Town with very English homes, street names, cottages etc.

Pros:

- Close to a large city with rail, air connections.
- Top rate schools and colleges

- Nil pollution and pollutants in water,air

Cons:

- Very few.

Coonoor has European weather, good environment, peaceful life, pollution free and nice to live.

Pros:

- Good environment

Cons:

- No airport

Coonoor is a picturesque hill station with temperate/mild climate throughout the year. It's famous for its tea estates, beautiful houses and home made chocolates.

Pros:

- Clean mountain air
- Blue mountains
- Colonial houses

Cons:

- Limited social life
- No big hospitals

It is near Ooty. Weather is much better than Ooty in winter, not so cold, all the facilities for decent and peaceful living are there.

Pros:

- tea in plenty
- good road
- low cost

Cons:

- luxury hotels not found
- medical facilities are minimum
- employment chances less

Coonoor with its sublime and serene climate is truly reminiscent of the English countryside. Its fresh green landscape, stunning scenery and climate makes it a great place to retire or holiday at if you want to de-stress.

The milder than the climate makes it more conducive for out door activities as well as gardening and other outdoor hobbies.

Pros:

- Milder than ooty

Cons:

- Expensive to invest
