Locality Reviews

Nagram Road area, Lucknow

This area is very good in terms of its connectivity. It links Faizabad Road, Sultanpur Road and also Raebareli Road because of which the property values keep increasing. Great response has already been received. Within a span of three years, Nagram road will also stand as one of the most sophisticated and posh areas of the city, and it will be no surprise if the rates multiply by two to three times," Awasthi further says.

"Rates are to increase swiftly next year. So it is absolutely the right time for investors and buyers to plough in money. Nagram road has great growth potential and shall witness price hike. Plots quoted at a price between `550-600 per sq ft are the mid range lands, which can easily be purchased by people of any section," said Rajiv Singh, executive, Siddhi Kripa Private Limited. A handful of townships are also to begin construction next year and some residential colonies are already working in full swing.

Pros:

- close to kishanpath highway
- close to purvanchal expressway
- close to sultanpur highway
