Locality Reviews

Electronic City, Bangalore

Electronic City is an information technology hub in Bangalore, India, located in Anekal taluk. It is one of India's largest electronic industrial parks, spread over 800 acres in Konappana Agrahara and Doddathogur villages in Bangalore. It consists of three zones called phases – Phase I, Phase II and Phase III.

Pros:

- IT Hubs

One of the best place to stay in entire Bangalore South.

Known as a Peaceful locality and completely a residential area.

Nearby landmarks are;

9km elevated 4 lane express way flyover

6 lane Bangalore-Hosur main road(NH-7)

IT companies like WIPRO, Infosys, HP, Velankani and Timken.

Crown plaza the 5 Star hotel

Appollo, Narayana Hrudayalaya and Ramakrishna hospitals.

ICICI, HDFC, Indian Bank and Punjab National banks.

Christ and Treamis World school, Delhi Public School are nearby.

Nice corridor, Electronic city to Mysore express highway access.

Pros:

- Less traffic roads
- Greenery locations
- Budget friendly houses

Cons:

- No big shopping malls

I was hesitant to move to the Electronic City area from where I lived at Indiranagar because I just thought it was so far away from everything but after I took the chance, more because I owned an apartment there, I just got to love the place. Greenery all around, no traffic noise to wake you up, little villages you can walk or cycle through, farm fresh vegetables and milk at within walking distance and when needed a supermarket is only a couple of kilometers away. The roads need a little work but the area is fast developing so I'm sure they'll be getting around to fixing them soon. The area is well connected with Hosur road flyover getting you to Silk board in under 10 minutes. I must add that whenever I go to the other parts of the city for work I just can't wait to get back home and It's always a pleasure to get a whiff of that cooler, unpolluted air as you get back in. Country living in the city I call it.

Pros:

- Fresh air and farm produce
- Greenery with lots of places to walk or cycle
- No noise pollution and no water issues

Cons:

- A little further drive if you don
- Roads need a little work
- Lacks good pubs and restaurants as of now

Electronic City Well planned with good facilities and amenities. All major IT players are located here.

Pros:

- The number one IT hub of India

Cons:

- Little far away from the Airport

Electronic City is a very much perfect place for investment on property, Guaranteed ROI right from the day you decide. Well connected to all the parts of the city. Near to most of the giant IT Hubs. Developing area and feels like an rural stay in an urban locality.

Pros:

- Near to major IT companies

Cons:

- Densely populated area

This is one of the developing areas in Bangalore, where we can do the investment on the property to get the best returns ASAP. And the property costs in a very marginal.

Pros:

- Developing at very fast pace.
- Peace full area.

Cons:

- Nothing

Electronic City is the IT Hub of Bangalore and a good location to invest in property. Will get nice appreciation in future. STRR connecting shortly to ease the traffic and connectivity to all localities.

Pros:

- Good appreciation
- Well connected

Cons:

- Very less super markets & malls
